Chief Seats are Greenwich, a Palace-Royal; (but the Town is more famous for the Royal Hospital there erected for disabled and aged Seamen) Knowle, D. of Dorset's; Eastwell, E. of Winchelsea's; Waldershire, E. of Rockingham's; Chilham-Castle, Mr. Colebrook's; Hotchfield, E. of Thanet's; Penshurst, E. of Leicester's; Squirrels, Mr. Ward's; Chevening, E. of Stanhope's; Fair-Lawn, Ld. Vane's; Surenden, Sir Edward Deering's; on Blackheath, Sir Gregory Page's; Mer-sham, Sir Windham Knatchbull's; Leeds-Abbey, Sir Roger Meredith's; Sutton, Sir Edward Filmer's; on Barham-Downs, Sir Basil Dixwell's. The Privileges of Gravel-kind belonging to this County, are threefold: 1. The Heirs Male share

all all the Lands alike. 2. The Heir is at 15 at full Age to sell, or alienate. 3. Tho' the Father were convicted of Treason, yet the Son enjoys his Inheritance: Hence that Proverb, The Father to the Bough, and the Son to the Plough. These three Privileges, granted and confirmed to them by William the Conqueror, are denominated Gravel-kind.

The Rules of HACKNEY-COACHMEN and CHAIRMEN, with their Rates, according to the Act of Parliament.

THIS Act was made in the 9th Year of her late Majesty's Reign. The Commissioners are authorised, under the Great Seal, to license 800 Hackney-Coaches, to drive within the Parishes and Places comprised within the Weekly-bills of Mortality.

Each Coach to be marked with its Number on Tin-plates, of the Breadth of $6 \frac{1}{4}$ Inches, and the Length of $9 \frac{1}{2}$ Inches, to be fixed on each Side the Coach, and every Proprietor to pay the Weekly Sum of 5 s. by Monthly Payments, to the Receivers of the Office: Also to be subject to the following Orders.

One Fourth of the 800 Coaches to ply every Sunday; and any one plying that is not in his Turn, forfeits 5 l. to be recovered by any one Person that will sue for it.

No Person can have more than two Licenses: For the Purchase of a License there is to be paid 50 l. Fine. If any Hackney-Coachman uses the Trade without a License, he forfeits 5 l.

Likewise

Likewise no Person shall use another Man's Figure, or deface his own, upon the Penalty of 5 l. one Moiety to the Informer.

No Horse, Gelding, or Mare, under 14 Hands in Heighth, shall be used for this Purpose.

If any Coachman, or Chairman, shall refuse to go at, or exact more for his Hire, than these Rates following, he shall for every such Offence forfeit 40 s.

N. B. Hackney-Chairmen are obliged to go the same Distance for 1 s. 6 d. which the Coaches perform for 1 s.

And it is also further declared, that no Hackney-Coachman shall take for his Hire more than 1 s. for any Distance not exceeding one Mile and a Half; and 1 s. 6 d. for any greater Distance, not exceeding two Miles.

And Hackney-Chairmen, by the said Act, shall not take more than 1 s. for any Distance not exceeding one Mile; and 1 s. 6 d. for any Distance not exceeding one Mile and a half.

It is appointed that no Hackney-Coachman shall presume to take for his Hire, in or about the City of London and Westminster, more for one Day of 12 Hours than 10 s.

And for one Hour 1 s. 6 d.

And for every Hour after the first 1 s.

For the better knowing the Distances between the most noted Places in the City and Suburbs of London and Westminster, the Commissioners have caused the same to be measured.

Note, The Mile, according to the Statute of Henry VII. is 8 Furlongs, or 5280 Feet; then if the Step, or Pace of a Man in walking,

DENBIGHSHIRE,

IS mostly in the Diocese of St. Asaph; but the Vale of Clywd is all or most of it in Bangor Diocese, and Denbigh itself in that of St. Asaph. And here it may not be improper to observe, that the Reason why the Jurisdictions of the Bishops of St. Asaph and Bangor are so intermixt, is supposed to be, because the former was Bishop in the Dominions of the Princes of North-Wales, and the latter in those of the Princes of Powis-Land. This County is 116 Miles in Circumference, and contains about 410,000 Acres, and 6398 Houses. The East Part is naturally fruitful, and the West improved with the Ashes of burnt Turf. The Inhabitants are chearful and long-liv'd. Here is Plenty of Rye, or Amel-corn. Goats and Sheep, and good Quantity of Lead Oar, in many Parts of the Country. It hath 57 Parishes, and 4 Market-Towns; one of which is Denbigh, which hath a most impregnable Castle. This is a Town of good Trade for Tanners and Glovers. Wrexham, the biggest Town in North-Wales, hath a neat Church, and lofty Steeple. There are in all, in England and Wales together, 25 Cities, 750 great Towns, called Market-Towns, 9913 Parishes, some of 40 or 50 Miles Circuit, 61 Forests, and about 300 Parks.

It appears, from the Observations and Calculations of the late George King, Esq; published by Dr. D'avenant, that the Rents of the Lands, by the Produce of the late Taxes, seem to be near Ten Millions per Annum; and that the Houses (not let with the Lands) amount to Two Millions per Annum; and all other Hereditaments to about Two Millions more: In all 14 Millions. So that the People and Territories of the King of England, alone, may be valued for Wealth and Strength at above one Half of those of France. And since the whole annual Income of the King of England's Subjects is about 50 Millions, (some, indeed, reduce it to but 32 Millions) it will require but an Eighth Part thereof to maintain 100,000 Foot, 30,000 Horse, 40,000 Seamen, and to defray all other Charges of the Government, ordinary and extraordinary.

England, without Wales is divided into Six Circuits, allotted to the Twelve Judges to hold the Assizes twice a Year. It is also divided by the Kings Justices in Eyre of the Forests, and by the Kings of Arms into North and South; that is, all Counties upon the North and South-side of Trent.

There are in all in England and Wales
 25 Cities, 250 great Towns, called Burghs,
 1000 lesser Towns, and about 10000 Villages.

It appears from the Observations and Calculations of the late George King, Esq; published by D. D. that the Burghs of England and Wales are worth 10 Millions of Pounds, and that the lesser Towns are worth 10 Millions of Pounds,

IT is desired of all COACHMEN and CARRIERS, that shall either remove all TRADESMEN and others, who shall discover any Omission, or Mistake herein, or in the FAIRS, of any kind, that
